14 new artists
a leap of faith

Thursday 28th February - Tuesday 5th March 2013
Private view Thursday 28th 7 - 9pm

An exciting new group of visual artists have come together from varied backgrounds and past experiences, to offer an intriguing glimpse of their work; presenting a range of views, contrasts and juxtapositions, where the total is greater than the sum of its parts. 14 New Artists: A Leap of Faith is based on the leap of faith required to engage in art, in pursuing the unattainable and in forming a new collective of artists and ideas.

This collection of works will lead to new perceptions of our environment, invoking a rich layering of meaning available to us all; showcasing a range of paintings, sculptures and mixed media works by Santiago Alcon, Judy Clarkson, Coulsoom, Rhed Fawell, Paul Flint, Geoff Gunby, Sarah Hinds, Raymond Isaac, Nigel Moores, Pawel Prus, Drew Sinclair, Kat Vogart, Ann Marie Whaley and Maggie Williams:

“figurative art that seeks the hidden essence of the seen”

“harsh and dramatic landscapes in black and white”

“exploring visual clues, spacial ambiguity and surface plasticity”

“ambivalent spaces that are simultaneously recognisable and abstract”

“the debris of everyday life rearranged, to celebrate events and record the passage of time”

“using the body as canvas; confronting unusual aesthetics”

“deconstruction of images and re assemblage to creating poetical narrative”
