

Coming soon

REV IT UP

3-15 March (open 1-7pm daily Tues-Sat, 11am-7pm Sun)

CELEBRATING WOMEN EVERYWHERE

Sally Grumbridge

The artist's mother's life provides a starting point for this meditation on dementia.

Maureen Nathan

A visual stream of consciousness / interior monologue / mindstream.

Laura Bello

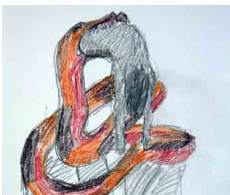

A short film project confronting the horror of rape and showing the devastating impact on the individual as well as wider society. Beautiful images stand in contrast to a disturbing voiceover.

Brigitte Boldy

Tina Viljoen

Christopher Guest

Exploring the work of nineteenth century classical scholar Jane Ellen Harrison.

Elizabeth Power

Pondering the struggle for identity in a culture which seems often to value women only as sexual objects.

Gabriela Giroletti

Considering the parallels between domestic life and the achievements of women in history.

Renée Rilexie

An interactive installation challenging us to go beyond the usual answers to the question, "Who am I?"

Marianne Frank

Examining the way in which women juggle their roles of wife, friend, mother, lover, worker & others.

Vera Akotuah

Images from the series 'Beach Ready' expressing the spirit of strong powerful women.

Rosa Cives

A sculpture representing the strength of an African woman: redolent with hope and courage.

Elsbeth Penfold

Looking at origins and destinations in modern women's lives. Features the artist's mother's wedding dress.

Valerie Montgomery

A glittery saturated palette depicts bold femininity within a contemporary feminist context.

Isabelle Fouque

Tracing the stages of women's lives from girls to women to mothers. Colourful and instinctive.

EVENTS

Private view

Thursday 5th March 6-10pm

International Women's Day Event & Performance

Sunday 8th March 3-7pm

Closing Party

Thursday 12th March 6-9pm

Lindsay Terhorst North

Reflecting on the strength and resilience of girls held in POW camps in WWII.